

A woman with short brown hair and a white jacket is shown from the chest up, looking slightly to the right. Her right hand is pressed against a vibrant green, heavily textured wall that resembles thick paint or plaster. The wall's texture is composed of various shades of green and white, with visible brushstrokes and ridges. The woman's hand is also covered in some of this green paint, particularly on her fingers. The overall composition is split vertically, with the woman on the right and the textured wall on the left.
